About Equator Education

Equator Education represents an ideal - an ideal committed to doing whatever it takes to help students reach their full potential.

Dr. Cindy Lovell Oliver teaches at Stetson University in DeLand, FL. Her background is in Elementary Education, Gifted Education, and English as a Second Language.

She is available for lectures, workshops, and presentations customized for your needs. She will provide powerful strategies for teachers, administrators, and students, and is also available for civic organizations.

"Energized and engaging!"

Dr. Oliver is an expert on Mark Twain and will customize a presentation for your organization.

"Dr. Oliver 'takes you places' when she talks. She is a master storyteller. For every concept she teaches, there is a story to go with it that makes you laugh or cry or both.

But... you will never forget!"

Kathleen Mickey Prescott, classroom teacher

Comments

- “I learned more in two hours listening to Dr. Oliver than in my combined education courses. Her presentations should be required in every school district.”

Lynn Albinson, science teacher

- “More energy and enthusiasm than you normally expect from a speaker. I feel completely re-energized and ready to go back to my classroom.” Elaine Beeghly,

5th grade gifted teacher

- “I’ve used Dr. Oliver’s strategies in my classroom, and believe me, they work!”

Kristen Weaver, 6th grade gifted teacher

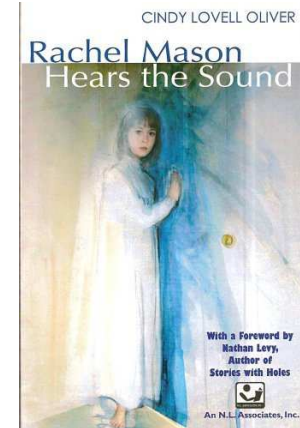

- “Dr. Oliver spoke to our women’s group about Mark Twain and the women in his life - wife, daughters, etc. She is a powerful and engaging speaker. One of the best we’ve heard in many years!” Pat Kershner, AAUW
